Stop #4: Oh the Places You'll Go ... While Using Active Transit

Thursday, April 28th, 6 – 8 pm, Asian Community Development Corporation, 38 Oak St Boston, 02111

BACH and BPHC invite residents to a community discussion about the intersection between active transportation and air pollution in Chinatown. Join Stefanie Seskin, Active Transportation Director for the Boston Transportation Department, and Dr. Doug Brugge, Community Assessment of Freeway Exposure and Health (CAFEH) Co-Chair, as they discuss the importance of active transportation; safety policies; bike lane design plans; and CAFEH findings regarding air pollution in Chinatown.

FREE EVENT. DINNER PROVIDED. RAFFLE PRIZES. COMMUNITY RESOURCES AVAILABLE.

Contact us for RSVP or with questions! Visit www.BostonAlliance.org for further details.
